

Japan review

- 1 In Feudal Japan who actually controlled the government?
 - A The samurai
 - B The Shogun
 - C Farmers
 - D The Emperor
- 2 Which is a characteristic of Japanese feudal society?
 - A High literacy rates
 - B Rapid social change
 - C Industrial based economy
 - D Rigid class structure
- 3 What is the Samurai code of conduct called
 - A Chivalry
 - B Truth
 - C Suppeku
 - D Bushido
- 4 What is the knights code of conduct called
 - A Bushido
 - B Chivalry
 - C Suduko
 - D Law and Order
- 5 In feudal Europe, the closest counter point to the samurai of feudal Japan was
 - A The knight
 - B The King
 - C The noble
 - D The serf
- 6 Which was not an aspect of Japanese culture
 - A Shinto emphasis on nature
 - B Equality of all classes
 - C A writing system diffused from China
 - D Buddhism
- 7 Shintoism
 - A Emphasized the concern for the poor

Japan review

- B had an organized hierarchy
- C believed in respect for the individual above the group
- D considers the emperor a descendent of the gods

8 What political system is associated with Japan during the Middle Ages

- A Fascism
- B Feudalism
- C Communism
- D Socialism

9 One way in which the code of chivalry in Europe and the code of Bushido in Japan were similar is that both were intended to

- A help the ruler control his people
- B benefit all the social classes
- C guide the behavior of a warrior class
- D support revolutionary ideas

10 What is difference between feudalism in Japan and Feudalism in Europe?

- A rigid social class
- B people to protect the land
- C Emperor at the top of the social class
- D code of conduct for the fighting class

Answer Key: Japan review

Question	Key
1	B
2	D
3	D
4	B
5	A
6	B
7	D
8	B
9	C
10	C