Questions: Asked and Answered

- Lindsey Jakabowski: asked as a concerned parent who exactly can join and become a PTA member_ the board answered that anyone from the community can join. Further discussions were had and Sandi Eisenman, Associate Director of Western Region PTA answered more follow up questions on what becoming a PTA member allows someone to do, gives them voting rights and may attend membership meetings.
- Nicole Sweeney: asked about extending the Door decorating contest for the teachers and coming in over Winter break to take the pictures_Mrs. Thurston said that would be okay.
- Kathleen Lock: asked about the new locking system and if the principal can lock them all from her office_Mrs. Thurston said yes, from her phone and the teachers can do their rooms from their phone.
- Nicole Sweeney: asked about making cards for Mrs. O'Hara_Mrs. Thurston said that would be great, they discussed doing it by grade level so that she didn't receive 500 cards at once.
- Rachael Barrett: asked about the DARE program_Mrs. Thurston told her the district is looking into it and she could follow up with David Smaczniak, Assistant Director of Operational Services for more details.
- Nicole Sweeney: asked when the Title 1 talk from Mrs. Thurston would happen_Mrs. Thurston said it would happen at next months PTA meeting.
- Mrs. Senese: Thanked the board for how much time and effort they put in.
